

Gift Acceptance Policy

Preamble

As a non-profit organization, Christ Child Society of Naples relies on charitable contributions to fulfill its mission. Christ Child Society, in soliciting or accepting gifts, shall clearly represent the organization's policies which might pertain to this exchange and honor all statements about the use of the contribution. The organization shall always disclose to potential donors important and relevant information. Every gift will be promptly acknowledged, and donors will be informed of how the gift will be recognized. Specific requests about acknowledgment will be honored consistent with Christ Child Society's practice. The organization reserves the right to refuse a gift if it is determined to be outside of the mission.

Guidelines for Acceptance of Gifts

Gifts of Cash

~ The Christ Child Society of Naples will accept gifts of cash to support the mission of the organization.

Gifts of Securities

~ The Christ Child Society of Naples will accept gifts of publicly traded securities. Such gifts will be reviewed by the Finance Review Committee and such securities shall be sold immediately upon receipt.

Gifts of Non-cash Donations

~ Christ Child will get a form signed by the donor that includes the name, address, and phone number of the donor and a description and an estimated fair market value of the non-cash donation.

Gifts not mentioned above will be reviewed by the Finance Review Committee to determine the appropriate disposition or the right to refuse the gift.
